To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

Rush Swango made a business trip to Glencarin Saturday.

Ernest Swango made a flying trip over to Torrent Friday.

G. Stone, of Carlisle, was a guest of the Swango House Saturday night.

Misses Fern Cecil and Mary John had a pleasant day with Miss Lizzie Craft Wednesday.

Mrs. Harman Swango spent a very pleasant day Sunday with Mrs. J. A. Taulbee, of your town.

Rev. John Caudill, of Magoffin county, was visiting his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Craft, two days last week.

James Woolums and Ash by Lee, of Millersburg, spent last week drinking Swango water and were guests of the Swango House.

Mrs. M. F. Stafford, of Utah, but who was visiting at Millersburg, is now a guest of Uncle Harry Swango and wife.

Misses Elsie Nickell, of Red river, and Rebecca Nickell, of Ezel, were visiting their sister, Miss Eliza, of this place, Sunday.

Fred W. Cowin, salesman for Cincinnati Drug and Chemical Co., and Thos. L. Gabbard, of Booneville, Ky., gave the Springs a call on their way to Lee City Thursday.

Charley and Alonzo Craft returned from their visit at Salyersville last week and report an enjoyable time, but Charley says he is satisfied to stay with the old folks at home yet awhile.

W. P. Cecil and little daughter, Miss Fern, of Cedar Bluff, and Mrs. W. H. John and two daughters, Misses Lisle and Mary, of Coeburn, Va., who have been visiting relatives here for four months past left for their respective homes Saturday.

Sept. 4. Uno.

GILLMORE GLEANINGS.

Rev. H. H. Little, who has been sick for some time, is reported no better.

George Little left this morning with two fat horses, bound for the best market he can find.

Born, September 1, at 4 a. m. to the wife of Henry Chaney, a fine girl. Mother and babe both doing very well.

James H. Vest is a candidate for the nomination of justice of the peace of Dis. No. 1, Lee City, subject to the action of the democratic party.

Mrs. Amos Graham has sold her crop to D. H. Linden, and also leased him her farm until the year 1902, and she and family is moving to Lee City where her husband is engaged in the mercantile business.

There were two items given to THE HERALD last week that we was going to write up this week, to wit: Old Granny Ely and Uncle Henry Pratt, but will say nothing more only to correct two items. First, Mr. Pratt was upwards of 90 years old some say 94. Second, he has been a citizen of this vicinity for 30 years to the writer's knowledge.

Mrs. J. Z. Haney and son, Kelley, had a narrow escape yesterday evening on their return from visiting some friends and acquaintances on Grassy. Their horse became unmanageable and ran away and demolished the buggy, and the occupants were considerably bruised up, but not fatally hurt we hope. Her son being hurt the worst. S. C. Alexander sent them home last night in his carriage in care of his son Willie.

Sept. 4. UNCLE REMUS.

SUNNY SIDE.

Arbury Brooks is in Menefee, getting out tie timber.

Holly Wilson, of Grassy creek, spent Sunday with N. P. Lacy and wife.

Taylor Centers, of Campton, was shaking hands in this part last week.

Mrs. Cooper has the thanks of our mother for a lot of very nice grapes. She did enjoy them so much.

Frank Stamper, of Campton, was in this section one day last week feeling of the people.

N. P. Lacy went to see Letcher Stamper last week, who is visiting his mother, Mrs. Rachel Stamper, of Campton.

While H. E. Oney was at Jackson attending the institute, one of his girl pupils got married. He says that a girl fourteen is entirely too young to marry.

Miss Elizabeth Craft spent one day this week with your writer, and to say that we enjoyed her company, would only be giving you a slight hint.

Aunt Elizabeth Lacy was a pleasant visitor at this place Saturday. We are always glad to see her come for a better woman than she would be hard to find.

Robert Brooks and Jackson Sallie stopped a little this side of Illinois, and got a tobacco job near Lexington, Ky. Guess the boys will return in time to vote.

Yes, we object to F. E. W., being the only one, but if they will promise to get up more and better news for THE HERALD, they may have the place of the "Only One."

Uncle Rastus Brooks went to Campton Monday. He says that he has some friends on the track, and he was going to look after their interest. Success to you, Uncle. Your will is our pleasure.

E. O. Taulbee and sister, Miss Callie, and H. E. Oney and his sister Callie, spent one night last week with the two Misses Cope, Anna and Bettie, at the home of James Cope, of Frozen, Breathitt county.

Felix Craft and wife, of the Swango Spring neighborhood, spent Sunday at our home, and in the afternoon in company with our mother went to Uncle Newt Lacy's, and were joined there by Uncle Rastus Brooks and wife. My! how they did discuss politics.

Misses Lula Taulbee and Callie Oney had the pleasure of seeing Prof. J. S. Hawkins during the institute at Jackson. It was a treat to them to see their old teacher whom they had not seen since the day they graduated, and he congratulated them and told them good by at the same time while they were on the stage. As soon as he heard that they were in town he called on them, and accompanied them to church that night to hear Rev. Mills "pound the gospel."

Sept. 4. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

DAYSBORO DOINGS.

The school at this place is progressing nicely.

Harry Perkins was on Gillmore again Sunday.

Ye writer spent the day with Emma Fallen Sunday.

Hello! Shiner, have you ever called at Sunny Side?

Messrs Mize and Strothers, of Hazel Green, passed through this section last week.

Emma Fallen and Billie Wilson gave our school a pleasant call Thursday evening.

Miss Mary Nickell, of your town, passed through here en route to Lee City Tuesday.

Lula Evans, one of Hazel Green's fairest charmers, was shopping in our town Saturday.

The mill which was burned here last week, is now being repaired, and by the help of Sam Russell will soon be in use again.

Mrs. M. J. Oney and charming daughter, Mollie, of Sunny Side, spent a pleasant day with ye scribe and mother last week.

John Sebastain returned home from Texas Saturday where he has been spending a few months. He says there is no place like Old Kentucky.

Sept. 4. LENA.

MORGAN COUNTY.

CONSOLATION CHAT.

W. J. Wallace paid McCausey a flying visit Wednesday.

John Wallace paid Maytown a flying visit last Saturday.

Clay Cecil attended the association at Union last Sunday.

Albert Coffee was the guest of E. L. Blankenship Friday night.

Ye scribe gave the young folks an apple paring last Monday night which was a success.

Uncle Robert Nickell and wife visited the family of C. E. Gillaspie on Thursday.

Ida and Nettie Brewer, little daughters of John Brewer, visited their uncle, Geo. Oldfield and family Sunday.

Wm. Blankenship and wife attended the funeral of Jeff Chambers at the old Stillwater church, Sunday.

O. W. Cecil went to Mogoffin Saturday to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, S. H. Jackson, at that place on Sunday.

Josie Gevedon and brother, John Frank, passed through Consolation Thursday en route to Hazel Green's flouring mill.

There was an apple paring at the home of E. F. Cecil's on last Wednesday night. All seemed to enjoy themselves as young folks can. After partaking of the delicious cakes and pies, which Miss Bonnie had so carefully prepared for the occasion, all went to their respective homes feeling it was good to be there.

Sept. 4. EINNIM.

EZEL DOTS.

Dr. F. M. Thomas is removing to West Liberty this week.

Very few of our teachers observed Monday as a holiday. Don't forget Labor Day, teachers.

Mrs. Emma Lockhart, wife of Dr. Lockhart, of Kiddville, has been visiting in town the past week.

Charlie Duff, of Spencer, was in this vicinity last week pretending to buy stock, but he seemed to be more interested in "Ratts" than anything else.

Mrs. John Adams last week stepped on a saw, cutting her foot severely. Blood poison has set up and her recovery is doubtful.

J. D. Spaulding and wife, who have spent the summer with Mrs. Spaulding's parents near Mt. Sterling, have returned home.

Louis Hylton, of Maytown, while on Broke Leg last Thursday lost his pocket book containing $152.50. He made quite a search for the money and offered $10 reward, but has failed to recover it. It was lost on the public highway and some man thinks he is $152.50 richer. Has honesty ceased to be the best policy?

On last Wednesday evening quite a number of friends and relatives assembled at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Henry to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Eliza, to J. M. Myers, of Montgomery county, Rev. Johns Adams officiating. After the ceremony an elaborate supper was served to over fifty guests. Mr. Myers is a successful farmer of Montgomery, and Miss Henry is one of Morgan county's most accomplished young ladies. They left Thursday morning for Mr. Myers' home, near Mt. Sterling, accompanied by Misses Lillie Henry, Ora Cecil, Bertha Samples and Miss Myers, Messrs. Chas. Samples, Ernie Henry, Steve Samples and Marshal Myers.

Sept. 4. ELIZABETH ANN.

MAYTOWN MISSIVES.

J. A. Eaton is visiting relatives in Harrison county.

Mrs. Curtin, who has been sick for some time, is able to be out again.

Quite a number of the fair sex, of our town, attended the association at Union last Sunday.

C. C. Lyons and sister, Miss Ida, of Frenchburg, were visiting their brother, N. B. Lyons and family, last Sunday.

Louis Hylton, one of our leading merchants, had the misfortune of losing his purse containing $152.50 one day last week.

Misses Rosa and Emma Trimble and Fred Sally, of Lacy creek, were visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wills, last Saturday and Sunday.

On Thursday night last quite a crowd of the young people met at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. John Childers for the purpose of stringing beans, which all seemed to enjoy very much. After enjoying themselves until a late hour, all went home happy.

In a private letter from Washington City received on Saturday last stating the death of J. Frank Young, who enlisted in the regular army at Lexington last March, and who has since that time been in the Philippine Isles on duty as a soldier. Stating he died July the 13th, and brought sorrow and sadness to many loving friends and relatives. To his heart-broken and widowed mother, brother and sisters, we extend our heartfelt and sincere sympathy, and may God in his good and mercy bind up their broken hearts. His body will be brought to this place for burial.

Sept. 4. LEOLENE.

MENEFEE COUNTY.

FRENCHBURG SPARKLES.

Albert Hatfield is a guest at Greenwade Hotel.

Turner Wells left here on Saturday for a business trip to Mt. Sterling.

Bill Greenwade and wife returned from a two weeks visit to Stanton, Ky., last week.

Miss Emma Dennis, of Mt. Sterling, is visiting Mrs. Bellewear, of this place this week.

Rollie Bailey, a well known school teacher, reports an enrollment of 75 scholars at the school at Stone Quarry.

John Harvey, formerly of Bath county, died on Friday night on head of Indian creek. His body was brought here and buried at Spencer Hill Cemetery on Sunday last. A large crowd attended the funeral. Rev. Little, a Presbyterian minister, conducted the services at the grave.

Thanks to Uno for her kindly criticism and comment on Uncle Samuel's production, "What is Home." This called out more thought and word appreciation of THE HERALD readers at this little burg than all the other newspaper matter of a month. And why should it not? Is there a thought in all the realms of this short life that could mean more for weal or for woe than the thought of having or not having the sweet joys, contentment and pleasures of home?

One of the events of our little town and circle, was the marriage of Turner Wells, the lumber magnate, and Miss Maud, daughter of ex-Judge Caudell, on Sunday last. The oddity of this affair, was that Mr. Wells took the bride and select party and repaid to the home of Parson Moore on Salt Lick creek, and had that worthy divine to perform the nuptial rites. After which the party drove to Olympian Springs for dinner, rounding up by the shades of evening at the Greerwade Hotel where the happy couple will board for a time.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
of Nebraska.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
of Illinois.

FOR GOVERNOR,
J. C. W. BECKHAM,
of Nelson County.

FOR CONGRESS,
J. BANFORD WHITE,
of Estill County.

MR. BRYAN recognizes the main issues this year and understands them. He proceeds at once to discuss them. He speaks plainly and fully. He has not made a single mistake. Why does Hanna forbid his "Little Willie" in discussing them?

TEDDY, the terrible, in his speech at Boston, called the colored troops d— cowards. If it had not been for the colored boys at Santiago, what would have become of Teddy and his rough riders?

ROOSEVELT's speech at St. Paul was indecent, and his letter in an effort to explain his error in decency.

Chicago American Horse Sense.

What is the use of talking over niceties of "imperialism," or "finance," or "banking policies"? Why not look at the big facts?

If a bull is chasing you across the field you do not hesitate as to what you shall do. You don't theorize as to the bull's creed or color.

You get out of the way.

This election is the most distinct case of big issues that has ever been known in American politics.

Take just two facts.

The republican party protects and encourages a system that in a very few years would lay you open to be drafted for army service to build up noble and gallant fighting gentlemen officers of the Roosevelt stamp.

Do you want that?

Do you want that? Or do you want the right to say whether you will be a soldier or continue as at present?

One other fact—and please consider it.

The republican party is piling on war taxes. It adds hundreds of millions to the national cost and it refuses to let the rich pay their share through an income tax.

You go to the army against your will. You give up your home for fifteen dollars a month—and your brother or uncle working for wages at home has the pleasure of being taxed to pay that salary.

The man with a hundred millions who uses you to open Chinese markets for his petroleum, or steel rails or canned meat, draws his full income, with never a tax upon it to help out the war expenses.

The democratic party is against a big standing army.

It is in favor of letting a man stay at home and live to suit himself.

And it is in favor of a heavy income tax, which shall force the rich to pay their share.

We say to you kindly that if you vote for republicanism this fall you will deserve the foolish feelings that will afflict you before McKinley's second term shall end.

Vote like a sensible man. Take the government away from Hanna and Rockefeller and the other prize vultures of commerce for a while.

Our old friend Isaac Hartfield, representing the house of Guggenheimer & Co., Lynchburg, Va., was a guest of the Day House one or two days last week and again over Sunday, on both of which occasions he displayed his samples and sold handsome bills to several of the merchants of our county. Whether it be his superior goods, his personal popularity or his card in THE HERALD, or a combination of all three causes we are not prepared to say, but certain it is that he commands a better trade than any dry goods and notions tourist that travels this territory. He is a favorite not alone with the merchants but with the people generally, and it gives us great pleasure to announce the fact.

Card of Thanks.

We desire through the HAZEL GREEN HERALD to earnestly thank the people of Hazel Green, and especially our relatives for their manifold kindness to us in our late sad bereavement. Only those who have had like sorrow can know how we feel and realize how sincerely our hearts well up in gratitude to all who tried to alleviate our dear one's suffering. Again we say thank you, and may others do unto you all as you have done unto us. Respectfully,
W. P. CECIL,
Sept. 1, 1900. JOSEPHINE SWANGO.

Biggle Horse Book is as full of good sense as an egg is of meat. Its motto, "Always speak to a horse as you would to a gentleman," is the keynote of its treatment of the whole subject. There are 25 chapters, including advice on feeding and watering, stable management, whims and vices, ailments and their remedies, harness hints, about stables, colts' education, care of the feet, etc. Many of the illustrations have been made from life. The book is handsomely printed and bound in cloth. The price is 50 cts. by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

To all who it may concern: You are hereby notified that there will be no selling of any kind on my land during the annual meeting, and if there is I will prosecute the one that will attempt it, as my land is posted. Respectfully,

"WHITAR" ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified toilet soap and superior to the old black tar soaps in every way. It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features. It suits neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white. It lathers in Hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and being 100 per cent. pure, outlasts any of "the filled" soaps of equal size. It contains much more glycerine than other soaps, and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended. Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.

Ask your dealer for it.

George Little left this morning with two fat horses, bound for the best market he can find.

Born, September 1, at 4 a. m. to the wife of Henry Chaney, a fine girl. Mother and babe both doing very well.

James H. Vest is a candidate for the nomination of justice of the peace of Dis. No. 1, Lee City, subject to the action of the democratic party.

Mrs. Amos Graham has sold her crop to D. H. Linden, and also leased him her farm until the year 1902, and she and family is moving to Lee City where her husband is engaged in the mercantile business.

There were two items given to THE HERALD last week that we was going to write up this week, to wit: Old Granny Ely and Uncle Henry Pratt, but will say nothing more only to correct two items. First, Mr. Pratt was upwards of 90 years old some say 94. Second, he has been a citizen of this vicinity for 30 years to the writer's knowledge.

Mrs. J. Z. Haney and son, Kelley, had a narrow escape yesterday evening on their return from visiting some friends and acquaintances on Grassy. Their horse became unmanageable and ran away and demolished the buggy, and the occupants were considerably bruised up, but not fatally hurt we hope. Her son being hurt the worst. S. C. Alexander sent them home last night in his carriage in care of his son Willie.

Sept. 4. UNCLE REMUS.

SUNNY SIDE.

Arbury Brooks is in Menefee, getting out tie timber.

Holly Wilson, of Grassy creek, spent Sunday with N. P. Lacy and wife.

Taylor Centers, of Campton, was shaking hands in this part last week.

Mrs. Cooper has the thanks of our mother for a lot of very nice grapes. She did enjoy them so much.

Frank Stamper, of Campton, was in this section one day last week feeling of the people.

N. P. Lacy went to see Letcher Stamper last week, who is visiting his mother, Mrs. Rachel Stamper, of Campton.

While H. E. Oney was at Jackson attending the institute, one of his girl pupils got married. He says that a girl fourteen is entirely too young to marry.

Miss Elizabeth Craft spent one day this week with your writer, and to say that we enjoyed her company, would only be giving you a slight hint.

Aunt Elizabeth Lacy was a pleasant visitor at this place Saturday. We are always glad to see her come for a better woman than she would be hard to find.

Robert Brooks and Jackson Sallie stopped a little this side of Illinois, and got a tobacco job near Lexington, Ky. Guess the boys will return in time to vote.

Yes, we object to F. E. W., being the only one, but if they will promise to get up more and better news for THE HERALD, they may have the place of the "Only One."

Uncle Rastus Brooks went to Campton Monday. He says that he has some friends on the track, and he was going to look after their interest. Success to you, Uncle. Your will is our pleasure.

E. O. Taulbee and sister, Miss Callie, and H. E. Oney and his sister Callie, spent one night last week with the two Misses Cope, Anna and Bettie, at the home of James Cope, of Frozen, Breathitt county.

Felix Craft and wife, of the Swango Spring neighborhood, spent Sunday at our home, and in the afternoon in company with our mother went to Uncle Newt Lacy's, and were joined there by Uncle Rastus Brooks and wife. My! how they did discuss politics.

Misses Lula Taulbee and Callie Oney had the pleasure of seeing Prof. J. S. Hawkins during the institute at Jackson. It was a treat to them to see their old teacher whom they had not seen since the day they graduated, and he congratulated them and told them good by at the same time while they were on the stage. As soon as he heard that they were in town he called on them, and accompanied them to church that night to hear Rev. Mills "pound the gospel."

Sept. 4. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

DAYSBORO DOINGS.

The school at this place is progressing nicely.

Harry Perkins was on Gillmore again Sunday.

Ye writer spent the day with Emma Fallen Sunday.

Hello! Shiner, have you ever called at Sunny Side?

Messrs Mize and Strothers, of Hazel Green, passed through this section last week.

Emma Fallen and Billie Wilson gave our school a pleasant call Thursday evening.

Miss Mary Nickell, of your town, passed through here en route to Lee City Tuesday.

Lula Evans, one of Hazel Green's fairest charmers, was shopping in our town Saturday.

The mill which was burned here last week, is now being repaired, and by the help of Sam Russell will soon be in use again.

Mrs. M. J. Oney and charming daughter, Mollie, of Sunny Side, spent a pleasant day with ye scribe and mother last week.

John Sebastain returned home from Texas Saturday where he has been spending a few months. He says there is no place like Old Kentucky.

Sept. 4. LENA.

MORGAN COUNTY.

CONSOLATION CHAT.

W. J. Wallace paid McCausey a flying visit Wednesday.

John Wallace paid Maytown a flying visit last Saturday.

Clay Cecil attended the association at Union last Sunday.

Albert Coffee was the guest of E. L. Blankenship Friday night.

Ye scribe gave the young folks an apple paring last Monday night which was a success.

Uncle Robert Nickell and wife visited the family of C. E. Gillaspie on Thursday.

Ida and Nettie Brewer, little daughters of John Brewer, visited their uncle, Geo. Oldfield and family Sunday.

Wm. Blankenship and wife attended the funeral of Jeff Chambers at the old Stillwater church, Sunday.

O. W. Cecil went to Mogoffin Saturday to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, S. H. Jackson, at that place on Sunday.

Josie Gevedon and brother, John Frank, passed through Consolation Thursday en route to Hazel Green's flouring mill.

There was an apple paring at the home of E. F. Cecil's on last Wednesday night. All seemed to enjoy themselves as young folks can. After partaking of the delicious cakes and pies, which Miss Bonnie had so carefully prepared for the occasion, all went to their respective homes feeling it was good to be there.

Sept. 4. EINNIM.

EZEL DOTS.

Dr. F. M. Thomas is removing to West Liberty this week.

Very few of our teachers observed Monday as a holiday. Don't forget Labor Day, teachers.

Mrs. Emma Lockhart, wife of Dr. Lockhart, of Kiddville, has been visiting in town the past week.

Charlie Duff, of Spencer, was in this vicinity last week pretending to buy stock, but he seemed to be more interested in "Ratts" than anything else.

Mrs. John Adams last week stepped on a saw, cutting her foot severely. Blood poison has set up and her recovery is doubtful.

J. D. Spaulding and wife, who have spent the summer with Mrs. Spaulding's parents near Mt. Sterling, have returned home.

Louis Hylton, of Maytown, while on Broke Leg last Thursday lost his pocket book containing $152.50. He made quite a search for the money and offered $10 reward, but has failed to recover it. It was lost on the public highway and some man thinks he is $152.50 richer. Has honesty ceased to be the best policy?

On last Wednesday evening quite a number of friends and relatives assembled at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Henry to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Eliza, to J. M. Myers, of Montgomery county, Rev. Johns Adams officiating. After the ceremony an elaborate supper was served to over fifty guests. Mr. Myers is a successful farmer of Montgomery, and Miss Henry is one of Morgan county's most accomplished young ladies. They left Thursday morning for Mr. Myers' home, near Mt. Sterling, accompanied by Misses Lillie Henry, Ora Cecil, Bertha Samples and Miss Myers, Messrs. Chas. Samples, Ernie Henry, Steve Samples and Marshal Myers.

Sept. 4. ELIZABETH ANN.

MAYTOWN MISSIVES.

J. A. Eaton is visiting relatives in Harrison county.

Mrs. Curtin, who has been sick for some time, is able to be out again.

Quite a number of the fair sex, of our town, attended the association at Union last Sunday.

C. C. Lyons and sister, Miss Ida, of Frenchburg, were visiting their brother, N. B. Lyons and family, last Sunday.

Louis Hylton, one of our leading merchants, had the misfortune of losing his purse containing $152.50 one day last week.

Misses Rosa and Emma Trimble and Fred Sally, of Lacy creek, were visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wills, last Saturday and Sunday.

On Thursday night last quite a crowd of the young people met at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. John Childers for the purpose of stringing beans, which all seemed to enjoy very much. After enjoying themselves until a late hour, all went home happy.

In a private letter from Washington City received on Saturday last stating the death of J. Frank Young, who enlisted in the regular army at Lexington last March, and who has since that time been in the Philippine Isles on duty as a soldier. Stating he died July the 13th, and brought sorrow and sadness to many loving friends and relatives. To his heart-broken and widowed mother, brother and sisters, we extend our heartfelt and sincere sympathy, and may God in his good and mercy bind up their broken hearts. His body will be brought to this place for burial.

Sept. 4. LEOLENE.

MENEFEE COUNTY.

FRENCHBURG SPARKLES.

Albert Hatfield is a guest at Greenwade Hotel.

Bill Greenwade and wife returned from a two weeks visit to Stanton, Ky., last week.

Miss Emma Dennis, of Mt. Sterling, is visiting Mrs. Bellewear, of this place this week.

Rollie Bailey, a well known school teacher, reports an enrollment of 75 scholars at the school at Stone Quarry.

John Harvey, formerly of Bath county, died on Friday night on head of Indian creek. His body was brought here and buried at Spencer Hill Cemetery on Sunday last. A large crowd attended the funeral. Rev. Little, a Presbyterian minister, conducted the services at the grave.

Thanks to Uno for her kindly criticism and comment on Uncle Samuel's production, "What is Home." This called out more thought and word appreciation of THE HERALD readers at this little burg than all the other newspaper matter of a month. And why should it not? Is there a thought in all the realms of this short life that could mean more for weal or for woe than the thought of having or not having the sweet joys, contentment and pleasures of home?

One of the events of our little town and circle, was the marriage of Turner Wells, the lumber magnate, and Miss Maud, daughter of ex-Judge Caudell, on Sunday last. The oddity of this affair, was that Mr. Wells took the bride and select party and repaid to the home of Parson Moore on Salt Lick creek, and had that worthy divine to perform the nuptial rites. After which the party drove to Olympian Springs for dinner, rounding up by the shades of evening at the Greerwade Hotel where the happy couple will board for a time.

THURSDAY, September 6, 1900.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
of Nebraska.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
of Illinois.

FOR GOVERNOR,
J. C. W. BECKHAM,
of Nelson County.

FOR CONGRESS,
J. BANFORD WHITE,
of Estill County.

MR. BRYAN recognizes the main issues this year and understands them. He proceeds at once to discuss them. He speaks plainly and fully. He has not made a single mistake. Why does Hanna forbid his "Little Willie" in discussing them?

TEDDY, the terrible, in his speech at Boston, called the colored troops d— cowards. If it had not been for the colored boys at Santiago, what would have become of Teddy and his rough riders?

ROOSEVELT's speech at St. Paul was indecent, and his letter in an effort to explain his error in decency.

Chicago American Horse Sense.

What is the use of talking over niceties of "imperialism," or "finance," or "banking policies"? Why not look at the big facts?

If a bull is chasing you across the field you do not hesitate as to what you shall do. You don't theorize as to the bull's creed or color.

You get out of the way.

This election is the most distinct case of big issues that has ever been known in American politics.

Take just two facts.

The republican party protects and encourages a system that in a very few years would lay you open to be drafted for army service to build up noble and gallant fighting gentlemen officers of the Roosevelt stamp.

Do you want that?

Do you want that? Or do you want the right to say whether you will be a soldier or continue as at present?

One other fact—and please consider it.

The republican party is piling on war taxes. It adds hundreds of millions to the national cost and it refuses to let the rich pay their share through an income tax.

You go to the army against your will. You give up your home for fifteen dollars a month—and your brother or uncle working for wages at home has the pleasure of being taxed to pay that salary.

The man with a hundred millions who uses you to open Chinese markets for his petroleum, or steel rails or canned meat, draws his full income, with never a tax upon it to help out the war expenses.

The democratic party is against a big standing army.

It is in favor of letting a man stay at home and live to suit himself.

And it is in favor of a heavy income tax, which shall force the rich to pay their share.

We say to you kindly that if you vote for republicanism this fall you will deserve the foolish feelings that will afflict you before McKinley's second term shall end.

Vote like a sensible man. Take the government away from Hanna and Rockefeller and the other prize vultures of commerce for a while.

Our old friend Isaac Hartfield, representing the house of Guggenheimer & Co., Lynchburg, Va., was a guest of the Day House one or two days last week and again over Sunday, on both of which occasions he displayed his samples and sold handsome bills to several of the merchants of our county. Whether it be his superior goods, his personal popularity or his card in THE HERALD, or a combination of all three causes we are not prepared to say, but certain it is that he commands a better trade than any dry goods and notions tourist that travels this territory. He is a favorite not alone with the merchants but with the people generally, and it gives us great pleasure to announce the fact.

Card of Thanks.

We desire through the HAZEL GREEN HERALD to earnestly thank the people of Hazel Green, and especially our relatives for their manifold kindness to us in our late sad bereavement. Only those who have had like sorrow can know how we feel and realize how sincerely our hearts well up in gratitude to all who tried to alleviate our dear one's suffering. Again we say thank you, and may others do unto you all as you have done unto us. Respectfully,
W. P. CECIL,
Sept. 1, 1900. JOSEPHINE SWANGO.

Biggle Horse Book is as full of good sense as an egg is of meat. Its motto, "Always speak to a horse as you would to a gentleman," is the keynote of its treatment of the whole subject. There are 25 chapters, including advice on feeding and watering, stable management, whims and vices, ailments and their remedies, harness hints, about stables, colts' education, care of the feet, etc. Many of the illustrations have been made from life. The book is handsomely printed and bound in cloth. The price is 50 cts. by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

To all who it may concern: You are hereby notified that there will be no selling of any kind on my land during the annual meeting, and if there is I will prosecute the one that will attempt it, as my land is posted. Respectfully,
LEE ROSE.

"WHITAR"

ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP
IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified toilet soap and superior to the old black tar soaps in every way. It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features. It suits neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white. It lathers in hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and being 100 per cent. pure, outlasts any of "the filled" soaps of equal size. It contains much more glycerine than other soaps, and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended. Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.

Ask your dealer for it.

FINE SHOES.

I have just received the finest line and greatest variety of

LADIES' AND GENTS' BOOTS AND SHOES

ever brought to the mountains, and having bought them before the recent rise in leather, I am prepared to save my customers money on every purchase they make. I want the ladies, especially, to examine my stock. For the price, I can show them a front-lace shoe that is a world-beater. It is, indeed, a beauty, and to the touch makes one feel that the shoemaker got hold of the kid-glove stock.

Respectfully,
